Monday A.M.

Dear J. A.,

Will write just a note as I must mail out our zip code.

It's a cold snowy time, but it seems to be just about everywhere.

We live out about 15 miles from Cincinnati to the extreme East and I suppose we have about 6 inches of snow and 3° below zero.

Our attendance was off just about half yesterday. There were 111 there. But considering that some of these were not members I guess we didn't do too bad. It's more encouraging to see those who aren't members come out in weather like this for you know they have to be interested.

Of course the kids are enjoying it. We went sled riding (and at my age) yesterday afternoon. There's a big park ideal for this about 5 miles from here.

I do trust your family is well.

We have all been remarkably well this winter. Matter of fact Wayne has ly missed 2 days of school.

Yeki's boy - Javan has been drafted. There are many things that may keep him out yet. One is that he is to be married January - not Jan. February 4th. Another is he had already registered to go back to school before he got his notice. So maybe he can at least put off the draftboard a while longer.

My folks are fine. My mom is still working 40 hours a week. It's just as well. Keeps her out of trouble.

Got a letter from Endilla the other day. Am enclosing it for there are some things you may be interested to know.

We have started off the year not so happily. We have had a lot of troubles with our family. Not immediate family, but cousins, aunts, and those friends close enough to be family. Some heartbreaking things.

Must close for now. Promised Mary Reed I'd watch her kids today so I'll go. Oh - her mother-in-law went to hosp. yesterday. Her one bad kidney's acting up. Mary and I are awfully close. Let me hear from you. Everybody hears from you but me.
